Events like ours rely heavily on the support of generous sponsors from year to year. The Kenai Peninsula Air Fair has become a staple in our community, and provides valuable opportunities for networking, education, and collaboration with our industry. If you would like to demonstrate your commitment to our event, we accept Sponsorship donations in the form of monetary donations and prize donations. All donations go to the Missionary Aviation Repair Center (MARC) in support of the Peninsula Pilots Club and Kenai Peninsula Air Fair. All Sponsors will get their logo or name on the poster and website for the event, time permitting.

Please assure that all information on the application is completed in full, as applications with incomplete information will not be processed.

Complete the attached registration form and submit to the Kenai Municipal Airport Administrative Office located at 305 North Willow Street, Suite 200. Forms may also be submitted via email to ena.admin@kenai.city. Payment is accepted by cash or check only, and will only be accepted in-person at the Airport Office or via mail. Checks must be made payable to "MARC". With any questions, please contact the Airport Office at 907.283.8281.
